Our Philosophy

Love, live, and learn Burgundy — the only way to truly experience this extraordinary region is with an expert on the ground. Our philosophy is rooted in respecting Burgundy's heritage, from its historic vineyards to local farming traditions. With insider access and concierge-style service, The Burgundy Wine Vault crafts journeys that are immersive, seamless, and unforgettable. Part of our philosophy is using our knowledge to provide exceptional customer service from start to finish, offering guidance and support throughout the client's trip and being available whenever needed.

Local Knowledge

Daniel has spent nearly 10 years guiding luxury travelers and hosting his signature wine tastings at some of Burgundy's most beautiful properties, including for Belmond and LVMH. Residing in the Côte d'Or, he possesses an intimate knowledge of the region's historic vineyards, gastronomy, culture, and heritage towns, ensuring every experience is crafted with authenticity, sophistication, and meticulous attention to detail..

Trusted Relationships

Over the years, Daniel has built strong connections with over 50 wine domaines, luxury private chauffeured companies, boutique hotels, Manor houses and handpicked restaurants. These trusted partnerships allow The Burgundy Wine Vault to provide exclusive access, VIP experiences, and seamless on-the-ground logistics.

Tailored Experiences

Every itinerary is fully customizable to reflect Burgundy's culture, heritage, and natural beauty. From private wine tastings, gastronomic experiences, and guided cultural tours to small plane flights, hot air balloon rides, and luxury picnics,
